

GO BETWEEN WON STAKE BY A NOSE

Lord Badge Was Best Horse in Race, but Jockey Travers Let Meddler Gelding Through on Rail in Stretch.

ZEALA, FAST IN MUDDY GOING, FURNISHED SURPRISE

Beat Out Favorite, Trapper, by Head in Driving Finish—Palette, Hot Choice, Took the Second Event.

THE WINNERS.

FIRST RACE—Bank (10 to 1) 1, Monet (3 to 2) 2, Roseben 3.

SECOND RACE—Palette (9 to 10) 1, Juvenal Maxim (3 to 1) 2, Akela 3.

THIRD RACE—Zeala (7 to 2) 1, Trapper (7 to 10) 2, Jennie McCabe 3.

FOURTH RACE—Go Between (8 to 5) 1, Lord Badge (9 to 3) 2, Thistle Heather 3.

FIFTH RACE—Istria (6 to 1) 1, Ralbert (15 to 1) 2, My Buca 3.

SIXTH RACE—Allumee (2 to 1) 1, Hildebrand (9 to 2) 2, Bella Signora 3.

(Special to The Evening World.)

RACE TRACK, AQUEDUCT, Nov. 9.—Lord Badge should have won the Stony Brook stakes at Aqueduct this afternoon, but the purse was thrown away through the carelessness of Travers, who went to sleep, and Go Between, ridden by Crimmins, just got up in time to nail Lord Badge on the post. Travers woke up when Go Between got to him, but it was too late. Lord Badge had the race in his hand all the way from the furling pole home and should have won easily. Go Between was heavily backed from 3 to 1 to 5 to 1.

The opening event went to Bank. He was a 10-to-1 shot and he furnished another of those reversals of form which have made racing disgraceful this fall. Bank had no speed in his last race, but to-day the fast sprinter could not get away from him and he beat out the favorite in a hard drive. Roseben was at a good price because it was believed that he would not run in the mud, but he was right bang-up at the finish.

Palette, favorite in the second race, favored by a good break and muddy going, breezed in front all the way, winning as she pleased from Juvenal Maxim. Prince Salm Salm, who was well backed, bolted at the start and was practically left.

The talent were fooled by Zeala in the third. The thought that being a full sister to Waterbury she would not run in the mud and from 3 to 5 she went up to 4 to 1. She had all her speed, however, and beat out the heavy-favored Trapper in a hard drive. The weather was raw and cold and the attendance the lightest of the meeting.

Here's Glaring Reversal. Bank, a 10 to 1 chance, who in his last race had not a particle of speed and was beaten a block, had plenty of speed today and he beat out the sprinters as Monet and Roseben. This is form as exemplified in the East. Jerry C. had the early speed and he showed the way to the stretch, followed by Monet, Roseben and Bank on almost even terms. They held their order to the last furling, where Jerry C. died away. Monet then showed in front, but in the last fifty yards Bank closed, and in a hard drive won from Roseben.

Palette Lead All the Way. Palette, the favorite in the second race, went to the front at the start, and in a long and hard drive, winning easily by a length and a half from Juvenal Maxim, which was second all the way. Akela, third, led the way, closed strong and beat out Trapper in the stretch. The start was made by Prince Salm Salm being practically left.

Zeala a Surprise. Trapper was a hot favorite in the third race. Zeala opened at 8 to 5, but went back to 4 to 1. He being believed that she could not run in the mud, Zeala surprised every one, however, by breaking in front and leading all the way, winning by a head from Trapper, who closed strong in the final sixteenth and forced Zeala to a drive. Jennie McCabe was third, ten lengths away.

Travers Threw Race Away. Go Between was a slight favorite over Lord Badge in the Stony Brook stakes. Lord Badge was the best horse in the race, and had it to hand when Travers let Go Between steal up in the last few jumps, and nail him on the post. Thistle Heather made the race to the stretch, where Lord Badge went to the front, and was galloping to the last fifty yards when Go Between closed with a sudden race and won on the post by a nose. Lord Badge was a length and a half in front of Thistle Heather.

Good Things Aways in Front. Istria, a good thing, backed from 15 to 1 to 8 to 1, went to the front at the start, made all the running and won easily by two lengths from Ralbert, who closed strong and beat My Buca a head for the place. My Buca was a 7 to 5 favorite.

Allumee Won Cleverly. Allumee went to the front soon after the start, made all the running and won cleverly by three-quarters of a length from Hildebrand, who closed strong and beat Bella Signora four lengths for the place.

BOY FATALLY HURT IN BOUT

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 9.—Edward Simonetti, fourteen-year-old son of John Simonetti, Vailsburg, is dying of concussion of the brain and spinal meningitis as the result of a wrestling and boxing bout with Leo Goodrich, of Irvington, in play yesterday. The lad felt no ill effects until he had eaten a hearty supper and gone to bed, when he had a chill and lapsed into coma.

FORMER MAYOR M'CUE SENTENCED TO HANG.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Nov. 9.—Judge Morris today sentenced ex-Mayor McCue to be hanged Jan. 20 for the murder of his wife.

KILLED AFTER SAVING WIFE.

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., Nov. 9.—While Edward Simmons and his wife, of Rotterdam Junction, were walking across the Boston and Maine bridge over the Mohawk River they were run down by a freight train. Simmons pushed his wife off the track, but was himself ground to pieces.

WELL KNOWN AUTHOR DEAD.

HELENA, Mont., Nov. 9.—A. G. Clark, son of A. G. Clark, a millionaire merchant, is dead, having succumbed just after leaving a polling booth. He was the author of "Aricaree Tales."

SCHOOL FIRE PANIC CAUSED BY PARENTS

Twenty-five Hundred Children Were Marching to Safety from School No. 17 When Their Mothers, Struggling to Reach Them, Aroused Fear.

With smoke all around them and with flames leaping almost at their heels 2,500 pupils of Public School No. 17, on Forty-seventh street, between Eighth and Ninth avenue, marched to safety from the burning structure today with the precision of a disciplined regiment of regulars.

Out in the street the air rang with the frantic cries of parents who had rushed to the scene and who fought the police with frenzy to get to their offspring, and it was not until the children saw the distress of their mothers that their nerve deserted them. Then some of the younger children broke down under the strain and stampeded. The presence of a large force of reserves, however, prevented any ill results from this display of panic.

SMALL GIRL GAVE THE ALARM.

The prompt arrival of the police and firemen was due to the quick wit of fourteen-year-old Martha Byrne, who was passing the school when the first billow of smoke rolled from an upper window. She ran to the West Forty-seventh street station and alarmed Capt. Hayes of the danger. Then without hesitating a moment she raced to the corner of Eighth avenue and gave a still alarm to Capt. Helm, of Engine Company No. 84.

Supt. Maxwell said after the danger had passed that it was the most rigorous fire drill that a large body of school children have been put in many years, and they passed through the ordeal with a coolness and nerve that spoke eloquent praise of their splendid training.

HOW THE BLAZE STARTED.

The fire started in the cloak room adjoining the class room of Miss O'Connell on the third floor of the building. The structure is of ancient pattern and the flames licked up the woodwork as if it were tinder. Miss O'Connell, who was reading to her class, made up mostly of girls ranging in age from eight to twelve years, noticed a puff of smoke from the cloak room a few minutes past 11 o'clock. She did not stir from her seat, but scribbled a note on a pad and gave it to a little girl to carry to Miss Mary Gordon, the acting principal, on the floor above.

SOUNDED THE DRILL ALARM.

Miss Gordon immediately sounded the fire drill alarm of the city government.

"KIDNAPPED" BOY HAS BEEN FOUND

Elias Owens, Who Disappeared After His Sweetheart Was Taken to a Hospital, Was Wandering in Dazed Condition

Elias Owens, the seventeen-year old boy, who has been missing from his home at No. 436 West Forty-seventh street, since Nov. 1, was found wandering in a dazed condition at One Hundredth street and Columbus avenue, today by Detectives McManis and Short, of the West One Hundredth street station.

He was turned over to his uncle who gave the detectives a receipt for him, but when detectives from the West Forty-seventh street station, in which precinct the Owens live, called at his house no trace could be found of the boy or his uncle and Capt. Hussey is puzzled over the case.

A general alarm has been out for the boy since he disappeared, and Senator Plunkitt, of whom the boy was a protégé, offered a large reward for the arrest of the persons who it was thought had kidnapped him. He was last seen in the neighborhood of Roosevelt Hospital, where his young sweetheart, Elizabeth Walsh, of No. 432 West Forty-third street, was taken suffering from a tumor on the brain. She was discharged from the hospital today.

The romantic friendship of this youthful couple was known by their friends and relatives, and when a vigilant search failed to discover any trace of the boy the theory was advanced that he had killed himself from grief over his sweetheart's illness.

This theory was followed by a suggestion that he had been kidnapped by the "Black Hand" society or some similar dreadful organization. The police were urged from powerful political sources to make a strenuous search for the young man, and Senator Plunkitt and the boy's father offered liberal rewards.

When taken to the West One Hundredth street station the boy was utterly unable to collect his wits. An ambulance surgeon was summoned from the J. Hood Wright Hospital and he said that the boy had been either taken a powerful drug or had received some blow that temporarily unbalanced his reason. When questioned the only answer he would give was "Capt. Hussey, Capt. Hussey." Thereupon a detective from the West Forty-seventh street station was summoned and immediately recognized the boy.

When it was learned that he had been found his uncle came to the police station and took him home. His mother has been so prostrated by his disappearance that a few days ago her life was despaired of. The police are entirely at a loss to explain the strange disappearance. The boy was employed in the Public Administrator's office and was the youngest office-holder in the city government.

ROOSEVELT IS 1,700,000 AHEAD IN POPULAR VOTE

Pluralities Double Record-Breaking Figures of McKinley in 1900—Only One State (Missouri) Now Disputed—All "Doubtful" Ones Swept by Tidal Wave.

DEMOCRATS ELECT GOVERNORS IN SOME REPUBLICAN STATES.

Debs Cuts Into Parker Vote in Chicago; the Slump in Greater New York's Vote Not Yet Explained—Republican Pluralities Everywhere Almost Unprecedented.

States carried by Roosevelt.....	32
States carried by Parker.....	19
Roosevelt's plurality in New York.....	172,322
Parker's plurality in Greater New York.....	35,778
Higgins's plurality for Governor.....	72,189
Herrick's plurality in city.....	80,624

The indications are that the President received the largest popular vote ever cast. His plurality in the States carried by him is 2,200,000. Parker's plurality in the Democratic States is about 500,000. This gives Roosevelt a net estimated plurality in the nation of 1,700,000. It is nearly double the unprecedented plurality of 840,700 obtained by McKinley in 1900.

Missouri is claimed by both sides. Beyond that the result nowhere appears to be in doubt, outside of half a dozen Congressional districts where an official counting is needed to decide.

The election of Folk, Democratic candidate for Governor in Missouri, is conceded. But the Republicans claim the rest of the State ticket and that Roosevelt has carried the State.

The Democrats do not concede this. They say the entire State ticket has been carried through and that the State's electoral vote will be cast for Parker.

Both sides also claim the Legislature, which will elect a successor to the veteran Senator Cockrell.

Every "doubtful State" went for Roosevelt. Nebraska has elected a Republican Governor, the fusion ticket being defeated.

Colorado is in the Republican column, but Peabody has been defeated for Governor.

UNPRECEDENTED VOTE EVERYWHERE.

Even Pennsylvania broke her record and gives a plurality of 400,000; Illinois comes next with 225,000.

Chicago led the way in Illinois. Every one of the thirty-five wards in the city went Republican, and the plurality of 103,000 given for Roosevelt there was increased by 15,000 in the rest of Cook County. A solid Congressional delegation of ten from the county was claimed by the Republican managers this afternoon.

In the Middle West, and especially in Chicago, Debs polled a large vote and explained by the local leaders. Both cut heavily into the Parker vote. In Chicago Debs received 41,000 votes.

In New York City Debs received 15,000 votes. The slump here is unexplained by the local leaders. The greater city gave Parker a plurality of only 36,000, Kings County being carried for Roosevelt.

Connecticut rolled up an unprecedented Republican vote, giving Roosevelt a plurality of $5,200, or 10,000 more than it gave McKinley four years ago.

New Jersey surprised the most sanguine leaders of the G. O. P. with a Roosevelt plurality of more than 65,000.

REPUBLICAN GAINS IN CONGRESS.

The next Congress will be Republicans, 239; Democrats, 140, according to the latest advices, with a half dozen districts in doubt.

The Republicans regain the Governorship of Rhode Island, but lose that of Massachusetts. Roosevelt carried the Bay State by $9,000, but Douglas, Democratic candidate for Governor, carried it by $4,000.

Colorado has gone Republican on the national ticket, but Gov. Peabody, candidate for re-election, is defeated.

BRYAN'S FIGHT WAS IN VAIN.

Nebraska gave Roosevelt about 70,000, and a Republican Legislature. This is a fatal blow to the aspiration of William Jennings Bryan to the United States Senate.

Minnesota gave Roosevelt 100,000, but elected Johnson the Democratic candidate for Governor, by about 10,000 plurality.

In Michigan the latest returns indicate that the Democrats did not elect a single member of the State Legislature.
